e-Governance Initiatives and IFHRMS

Department of Finance through the Commissionerate of Treasuries and Accounts is making a holistic approach towards e-governance, focusing on process re-engineering, workload optimization and robust management of State Finances leveraging the latest proven technology. The Department has decided to embark upon its next phase of e-governance initiatives.

Integrated Financial and Human Resources Management System (IFHRMS) is at the core of this transformation. The IFHRMS shall take care of the activities of Finance Department to a larger extent by bringing Commissionerate of Treasuries and Accounts and other departments online and ensuring real time updation of the financial transactions of the Government. The IFHRMS will also take care of the Human Resources component by reducing the workload and associated drudgery at various levels besides making it paper-less and providing a hassle-free environment for transactions within the Finance Department / Treasury Department / other Departments and thereby ensure robust management of the State finances.

M/s. Accenture Solutions Pvt. Ltd., has been appointed as the Consulting Agency through an agreement dated 18.07.2012 to make a thorough study of the existing system in Finance and Administration of the State Government and formulate proposals for the

Rules and Regulations
The users of the library have to adhere to the following rules and regulations.
All the students, faculties and staff members are the members of the Central Library.
The library works from 9:45 am to 4:45 pm on all the working days.
Students and faculty members have to write their name and other particulars in the gate register kept in the entrance of the library.
The personal belongings (notebooks, textbooks, water bottles, bags etc.) should be kept in the property counter.
Silence is to be maintained in the reading hall.
Open access system is in vogue. The users are free to browse any collections and choose the books of their choice either for reading in the library or for home lending.
The students can borrow two books at a time from the library. In times of necessity, the number may be increased.
The books are issued for a period of two weeks, which can be renewed for another 2 weeks.
The librarian has the discretion to ask the readers return the books, which are in demand.
