However, if a family member is in regular employment and living separately without providing any monetary assistance to the family before the death or retirement on medical invalidation of a government servant, any other member is eligible for a government job. The application for appointment under these rules shall be made within three years from the date of death of the government servant or from the date of retirement on medical invalidation or from the date of receipt of a court order declaring the missing government servant dead. The spouse of the deceased or medically invalidated government servant or the parent of the deceased government servant must not have completed 50 years of age.

In the case of son, daughter, brother or sister, he/she must not have completed 40 years.
