About Our College

"The only service to be done that education by which character is formed, strength of mind is increased, and the intellectual is expanded by which one can stand on one's own leg". - Swami Vivekananda. Swami Chidbhavananda, the great Saint, seer, and savant widely known for the power and depth of spirituality, was inspired by this idea and founded Sri Ramakrishna Tapovanam, with the goals of propagating spiritual and moral values among the public and promoting women's education. Sri SaradaNiketan College for Women, Karur, is one of Tapovanam's colleges that was founded in 1987. Character development and cultural instillation are the foundations upon which the superstructure of modern education is built here. The college's educational vision and mission is the harmonious development of students.

About Our Department

The department of Mathematics is one of the college's three oldest departments. It was created by hand in 1987, at the time of the college's inception. Mathematics courses are available at both the postgraduate level in the department. In 2004, the M.Sc. in Mathematics degree was introduced. Mathematics is also available as an allied subject for B.Sc., Physics, Chemistry, and as one of the major papers for B.Sc., Computer Science. The faculty of Mathematics teaches the Mathematical Foundation for Computer Science paper for the M.C.A. programme.

About the Seminar

The College

Government Arts and Science College, Nagercoil was started on 20-05-2016 after it was declared by Hon'ble Dr. J. Jayalalitha, the then Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu in the Legislative Assembly during the discussion on demand of grants to Higher Education. This announcement came as a boon to the people of Kanniyakumari District as this has been one of the major demands of this district for more than 30 years. The permanent building of our college was inaugurated by Hon'ble Mr. Edappadi K. Palanisami, Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu. Now the college offers Under Graduate courses in English, Commerce, Economics, History, Mathematics, Physics, Computer Science, Statistics and Business Administration.

The Department

The Undergraduate Programme in English was started in the academic year 2016-2017, the faculty consists of seven experienced and dedicated members. Its English Literary Association conducts various competitions to enable students to prune their creative skills and to develop the all round capabilities in them.

The Workshop

Inculcating the importance of soft skills has always been given lesser emphasis in the curriculum in Higher Education.

So, there is very little training provided to the students during their course of study. Softskills such as communication skills, interpersonal skills, critical thinking, negotiation skills, emotional intelligence play a vital part in building up a strong career.

Soft skills are slowly transforming into hard skills in today's world. Highly trained people in technical skills, without developing soft skills like interpersonal and relationship-building skills that help people to communicate and collaborate effectively are found to be less efficient.

Worldover, organizations and institutions struggle a lot to find meaningful ways to remain competitive and be productive. To meet with this requirement, training in Interpersonal skills, leadership skills, and communication skills have to be imparted.

In this era of communication and collaboration, the need for Softskills is thus inevitable.

Resource Person

Dr. M. Rajaram,

M.A., M.Phil., M.A. (JMC), PGDPMIR

He is working as an Assistant Professor of English in M.V.M. Government Arts College for Women, Dindigul, with more than 25 years of teaching experience. He has guided more than 30 M.Phil. scholars and currently he is guiding 7 Ph.D. scholars. He has published 5 books. He has attended more than 20 international conferences and has published more than 12 papers in international journals. He has acted as a Resource Person for 31 international/National Level Workshops, acted as Master trainer for 7 English Language Fellowship Programmes for Government College English Teachers and 5 UGC sponsored Refresher and Orientation Programmes. He is an International Freelance Editor in the Institute of Naturopathy Therapeutics and Research, Castricum, Netherlands. He was an Associate in the Centre for English Language Education, University of Nottingham, United Kingdom in 2015. He is an Editorial Board Member for 2 International Multidisciplinary Journals and the Editor of International Journal for Research in Science and Humanities (IJFRESH). He is also the Core Committee Member of National Level and International Level Organizations and is one of the Masterminds Behind the Creation of Softskills Centre funded by TANSCHÉ and has trained more than 1500 students in Softskills for the past 3 years.

About the college

St. Antony's College of Arts And Sciences for Women is a religious minority arts and Sciences College affiliated to the Mother Teresa Women's University, Kodaikanal, It is run by the sisters of the congregation of Immaculate Conception, Madurai and managed by a board of management. The objectives of the College are impart quality higher education with creativity to liberate and empower the women in order to free them from the psychological, sociological constraints to and from a sense of dependency and despondency, inhibition, powerlessness, subordination and exploitation.

About the Department

With High Motive to impart Knowledge in Literature and Language, the Faculty member of the English Department educates our students hail from rural background. We offer UG, PG, and M.Phil Courses and enrich the communication Skill for the Students with the help of ICT in our campus.

About the Seminar

The major objective of Dalit studies is to offer new perspectives for the study of India. First, to foreground dignity and humiliation as key ethical categories that have shaped political struggles and ideological agenda in India. Second, Dalit studies historicize the persistence of caste inequality and discrimination that have acquired new forms in a modern and democratic India. The key of Dalit studies is to recover histories of struggle for human dignity and caste discrimination by highlighting Dalit intellectual and political activism. The rise of Dalit studies as discipline can be located in the transformational political events of the 1990's in India. It requires innovative approaches and combining anthropological, historical and literary fields.

Dalit history demonstrates that the colonial regime provided Dalit with mechanism to claim political and constitutional rights previously denied to them. A key trend in the field is to recover histories of leading Dalit activists or leaders in different regions of India and to explore the nature of activism that emerged there. A second prominent trend is to recognize the distinctive agenda of Dalit feminism. A third emerging trend has been to engage with Dalit literature in both prose and verse forms, as well as political and autobiographical writings to understand the cultural and social motivations that have shaped their political activities. The fourth prominent theme is to study Dalit groups religious and cultural formations.

Sub -theme:

- Dalit women writing
- Search for identity
- Psychological Sufferings
- Frustrated homemakers
- Domestic violence
- Gender issues
- Casteism problem
- Human Trauma
- Harassment of Dalit women
- Marginalization
