M.V.Muthiah Government Arts College for women, Dindigul has constituted the Electoral Literacy Cell (ELC) to engage students through various activities and to sensitize them on their electoral literacy and familiarize them with the electoral process of registration and voting. It aims at creating awareness on the culture of electoral participation among young and future voters. A nodal officer is being nominated to coordinate the ELC and steer the students for discharging their duties towards our country growth and development.

Objectives:

1. To cultivate the voters for building a participative democracy in electoral system.
2. To create awareness with basic knowledge related to the voting E process.
3. To promote voter literacy among all eligible citizens to cast their vote and make an informed decision during the elections.
4. To ensure hundred percent voting in state and central election process for authentication of legislative members and higher ranking hierarchy.

GOALS

1. A student being the leader of tomorrow has an effective role to play in the electoral process.
2. To contribute and present ideas to the development of a society for the welfare and betterment of the community.
3. To mold this corrupted scenario to a better place to live in, the student as an educated and literate human being can stand forth to bring a change in one's own society.

VOTERS DAY:

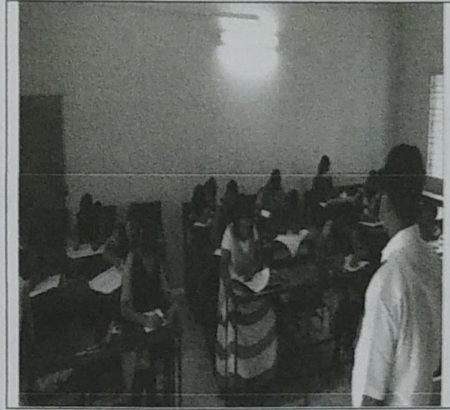

In order to encourage more young voters to take part in the political process, Government of India has decided to celebrate January 25 every year as "National Voters' Day". It has been started from 25 January 2011 to mark the foundation day of Election Commission of India. It induces the minds of younger generation to shape the nation for its betterment.

During the voters day the staff and students were instructed to assemble in front of the stage. Every one took the oath which dealt with the responsibility of every citizenship of India should cast their vote. Each and every word of pledge reiterated the importance of casting their votes while the pledge was taken-up by the students and staff.

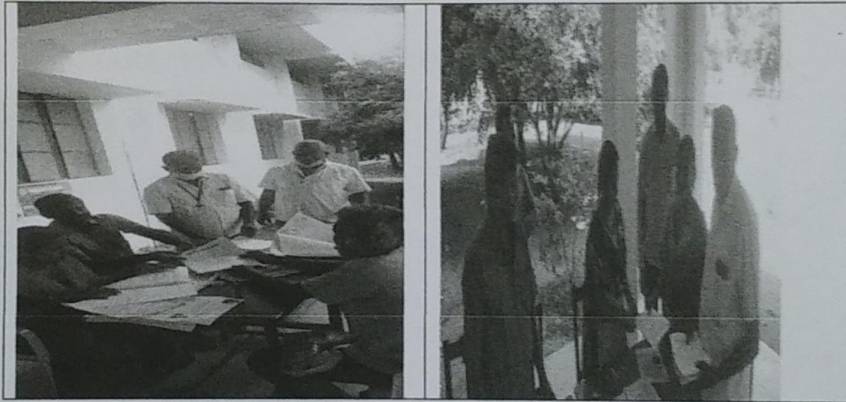

On 23.03.2019, the then collector Mr. Vinay IAS, organized the voters awareness programme to create the awareness among the public for the forthcoming parliament election in the year 2019. Our college was the centre for conducting the entire programme related with the theme of election based. The staff fully involved in shouldering the responsibility of conducting the competitions such as Rangoli, Drawing, painting, debates, mime, tableau and elocution. The then Principal Dr.Latha Puranam monitored the events and the Collector presided over the function and distributed the prizes along with the certificates to the student's participant

CONCLUSION.

- The students can take part in this process by educating the masses to look into the future and work accordingly and not to fall in the evil of money.
- The living standard of the people in the developmental process, can be balanced if the electoral process is considered as a serious matter.
- The electoral process is a great platform where one can bring a big change for the better tomorrow, and the future depends on us as an educated student to take lead in the right path.
- The future depends on what young generation students contribute now it is "For Tomorrow".
